

Fall 2013 Calendar

Academic Job Search Group

| | |
|---------------------------------------|---|
| 8.20.13 | Introduction to the general process Who are you already? Identity framings <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Purdue program• Field as a set of people seeking people to do jobs• You as a position seeker Ad analysis introduction Talk about dissertation summary |
| 8.27.13 | Workshop dissertation summary Talk about CVs, materials for packaging, and job search resources BRING (for workshop): 4 copies of a 1-3 page draft of dissertation summary |
| 9.03.13 | Workshop CV draft #1 Talk about application letter BRING (for workshop): 4 copies of your CV draft |
| 9.10.13 | Workshop application letter Talk about writing samples BRING (for workshop): 4 copies of your main application letter draft |
| 9.17.13 | Workshop writing samples and their cover sheets Talk about teaching philosophy BRING (for workshop): 4 copies of first 5 pages of writing sample + a cover sheet |
| 9.24.13 | Workshop teaching philosophy Talk about modifying application letters (and CVs if needed) BRING (for workshop): 4 copies of your teaching philosophy statement |
| 10.01.13 | Workshop CVs and Application letters # 2 [tailored] Discuss projected work statements and portfolios BRING (for workshop): 4 copies of a letter tailored for a particular job ad + ad BRING: your application package so far |
| 10.08.13 | fall break—no meeting |
| 10.15.13 | Teaching portfolios and evidence of curriculum development Researching jobs for interviews BRING: whatever needs the most work |
| 10.24.13 & Nov. | topics and meetings as needed from this point forward -- typical past topics: interviewing (phone vs. F2F), campus visits, etiquette, special session on video interviewing, web pages, social networking, telling rich stories about your work, practice interviewing each other over the phone/video |
| final week of classes or exam week | Mock interviews |